

AluFix®

Fall Protection System Quick, Easy & Tool-Free

AluFix® Classic and EVO - Fall Protection Systems

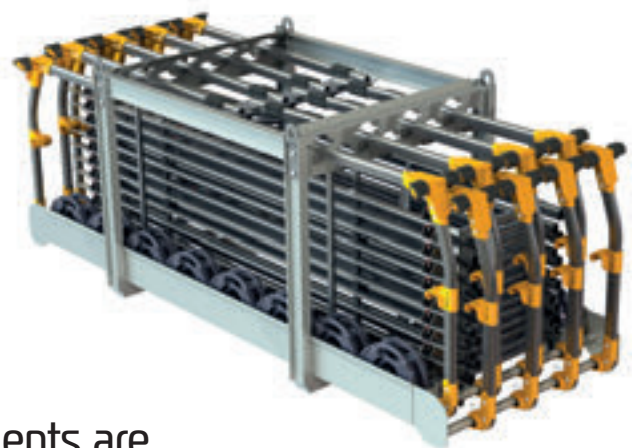

Using Combi Works' AluFix® safety railing systems, you can work safely on the roof. The railing systems can be used on any roof with up to 10° incline freestanding. AluFix® counterweight systems are easy to install and move to a new location. AluFix® is certified to meet the relevant EN 13374-A standards.

Combi Works' AluFix® systems consist of rail elements, locking clamps, support legs and counterweights, which are conveniently packed in a transport racks.

- 1 Quick, easy and completely tool-free assembly
- 2 Lightweight and durable construction using high-quality aluminum components
- 3 Can be used on surfaces with up to 10° incline
- 4 Large working space with minimal intrusion
- 5 Adjustable corner connection from 0–180°
- 6 Substantial transport rack of galvanized steel for easy packing, transport and positioning on-site
- 7 Tested according to EN-13374-A

AluFix® Classic

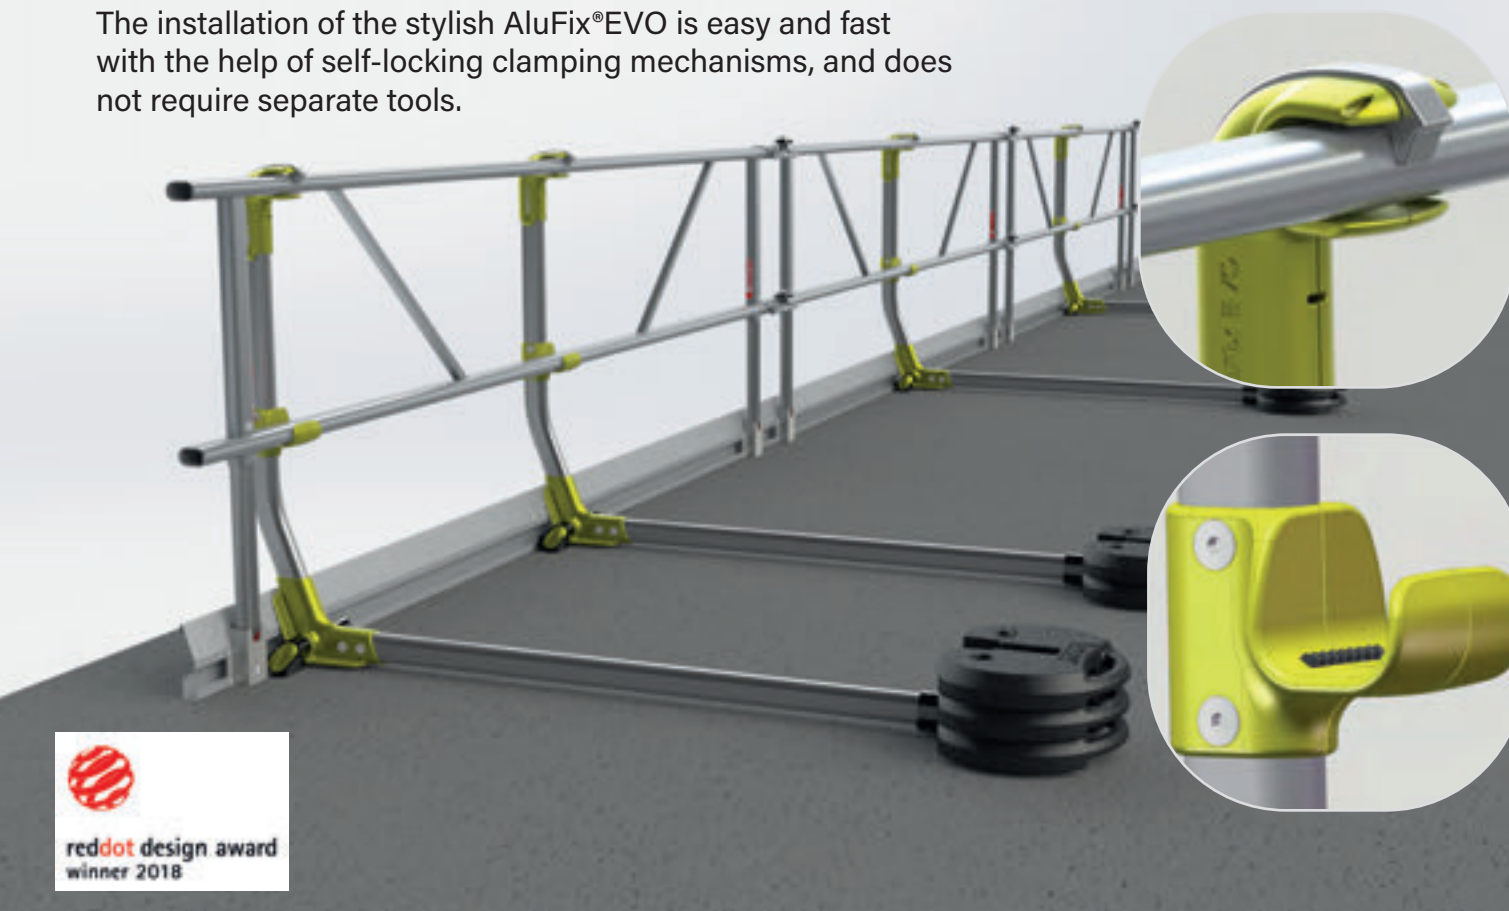

AluFix® EVO

AluFix® elements are delivered packed in stackable transport racks.

AluFix®EVO

The installation of the stylish AluFix®EVO is easy and fast with the help of self-locking clamping mechanisms, and does not require separate tools.

AluFix®Classic

Installation of the easy-to-use AluFix®Classic is effortless, without the need for separate tools. The clamps can be tightened by hand.

Watch the installation video!

Availability

Due to their ease of use and safety, AluFix® products have gained great popularity both in Finland and internationally, which is why our dealers can be found in many different countries.

AluFix® safety rails are manufactured in Finland and our products have been tested by impartial European standardization offices. We follow ISO 9001, ISO 3834-2, EN 1090-1, EN14000-1, EN18000-1 in our business and operations. Our company values define our path: Ambition, Exceeding expectations and Precision.

Modern CAD processes are combined with a team of experienced and highly skilled employees to ensure the highest levels of quality are maintained in what we do.

To request additional technical documentation or to discuss a project or support requirement, please contact us using the information below.

Contacts

CombiWorks Oy
Heikkiläntie 7
00210 Helsinki
Finland
+358 10 2193 080
infra@combiworks.com
www.combiworks.com